

San Carlos Hometown Days is looking for contestants for the

Ninth Annual High School

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Sunday, May 21, 2017

SPONSORED BY

Selected bands will take the stage and be judged by a panel of local musicians for a chance to win prizes (to be named at a later date).

The event will feature five musical performances at Burton Park from 2:30 to 5:00 PM.

Anyone interested in performing at this year's Battle of the High School Bands must submit contact information and a video or audio recording to Clock Tower Music by March 31. NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED. Selected bands will be notified by email by April 7.

To qualify, the majority of your band must be in high school and a resident of San Carlos or the immediate surrounding area. You must provide your own instruments and refrain from using offensive language during your performance.

For further information please contact Susan at susankimmel66@gmail.com.

PLEASE SEND
THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION TO

susankimmel66@gmail.com or apply in person to Clock Tower Music at 676 Laurel Street in downtown San Carlos:

- Band member names and where they go to high school
- Contact information for main band contact
- What kind of music your band plays
- CD or link to online music file

DEADLINE: MARCH 31

www.sancarlos-hometowndays.com